Mr. D. C. Collier, Director General,
Sesquicentennial International Exposition,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mr. Collier;

I have your letter of April 14th. I was with my son, D. C. Collier, at the time we met you in New York City.

In our collateral branch of the Collier family, the middle initial C invariably stands for Cuthbert, as the Colliers and Cuthberts and the Vines family of Virginia were all very closely related around Revolutionary times. At some time I will send you a genealogy of our collateral branch of the Collier family.

Recently my son spent four months in Europe and visited the old Collier homestead of Stone, in the County of Stafford in England. Our collateral branch of the Collier family descended from Robert Collier, a merchant of London England back in the fifteenth century, he having had a son by the name of John whose son, Isaac, came to Virginia around 1625.

I trust to have the pleasure of meeting you again during the summer, and if you ever come to Georgia we will be pleased to have you call on us as we are right near Atlanta.

With sincere regards, I beg to remain

Yours very truly,

JCC:C

P.S. Have you ever met John J. Collier, 1520 Spruce St. your City? I presume you have. He doesn't appear to be related to your branch of the Collier family but seems to be an independent branch.
